Volumes and Tkeir Significance S the whole object of these studies is to learn to read what the point which should be known and understood before we proceed, otherwise the explanations cannot be made clear. First of all, we must recognize that the market for any stock--at whatever level it may be--is composed of two sides, represented by the bid and the asked price. Remember that the last sale is something entirely different from the market price. If Steel has just sold at 50, this figure represents what has happened. It is history. The market price of Steel is either 49 or DEGREES. The bid and asked prices combined form the market price. This market price is like a pair of scales, and the volume of stock thrown out by sellers and reached for by purchasers, shows toward which side the...
