MAJESTIC VIEW DRIVE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Majestic View Drive is the sixth book in a series of novels featuring Michael Mickey Ross. The first three books are in the form of a trilogy. They are Rommel s Black Box, The Loon s Vendetta, and The Golden Jackal. Please note that every book written is a standalone novel. The next were The Knights of Valhalla, The Calder Mines, and Majestic View Drive. Majestic View Drive is a Michael Mickey Ross novel about a double homicide and a serial killer. Homicide cases always require unvarying concentration, and most often the investigator must devote days paying attention to the details of the case. While doing this he has to consider the salient points first and simultaneously probe secondary leads. Doing this is what keeps a case going in the right direction. An outstanding homicide detective must be relentless in the pursuit of the case. Such a detective will usually search for a trail of evidence and then follow a defined format of investigative techniques. If that doesn t work he follows his gut. At one time Mickey was an outstanding homicide detective, but now he is retired or semi-retired. During this episode Ross works loosely with the New York State Police in the pursuit of a serial killer. Majestic View Drive stays on course and follows a steady pace while the killer attempts to remain concealed amongst the cast of characters. Throughout this story Ross is doing what he did most of his life and what he does best - homicide investigations. The only difference now is that Ross and Yankee Investigations have been hired by a defendant. The serial killer in question leaves a distinguishable mark..
