They accordingly first ordered a correct plan of the whole, to be made out by Mr. Kyle, Surveyor. They next directed sketches to be drawn of the mode for improving to the best account--one of which was furnished by Mr. Kyle, and the other by Mr. Shepherd. In the third place, they put these materials into the hands of Messrs. Robert Ferrie, William Rodger, and James Carswell, three of the most able and experienced judges in the City, and requested these Gentlemen, after minutely examining the whole property, to report their opinion. The result is now laid before the House, and is as follows: -- Glasgow, 1st August, 1817. James Ewing, Esq. Dean of Guild; Sir, We, at your desire, have inspected the Merchants House Property, in Bridgegate-Street, with the view of giving our opinion of its value, which is as...
