Now you can enjoy their feel-good music on this collection. A Prairie Home Companion listeners are frequently treated to a song, sometimes to a familiar tune, sometimes to original music with words by Garrison Keillor. In them, he sings of home, love, friendship, family, faith, or just plain fun. These sixteen songs, specially recorded for this collection, are some of his best. I carry this solemn mug around in public to encourage strangers to mind their manners, but when I get home I am glad to make faces, quack like a duck, dance a little dance, and even sing a little.
