Next. A grand bridge with tunnels therefrom leading into this Mill Creek valley, but no preparation whatever to receive the throngs of passengers and countless tons of freight which should be poured into this avenue when the work is completed. Next. Two other railroads, one the outlet to the south and west, the other to the north and west, each engaged in prosecuting its own plans for its own local ends, and with no thought of combination or unity of purpose toward the carrying out of some one settled plan for the mutual benefit of all.
