The old man had a wife whom he loved dearly, and three sons, and they also had wives whom they loved dearly, and numerous progeny and also a Baby. The three sons took counsel together and said, Let us all leave our business and take a vacation; let us gather together the whole progeny and also the baby and have a grand family party, and let us also take the Wise Old Bird and his wife. But then they said, Where shall we go? And they smoked many cigars and discussed the matter until three in the morning, for they all wanted to go to different places, as all the progeny had their own pet and favorite pastimes and their parents knew it. They then said, Let us talk to the Wise Old Bird. And the Wise Old Bird said, You come with me and I will foot the bill, and they agreed with a unanimity which in them was quite wonderful, and entirely unprecedented. And so they came to Avalon. And at Avalon they found all that they wanted. The Baby wanted milk, pure milk fresh from the cow, and he got it; and he wanted warm summer weather, not too hot, and he got that too; and he thrived and was never peevish, and his milk agreed with him. The numerous progeny also got what they wanted; the younger ones played in the sands, and swung...
