Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.For too long, we as teachers and leaders have given information without revelation. We tell people what they need to know, and if they can remember and repeat it back, we think they ve learned it. They haven t. Head knowledge does not convince the heart. The heart is anchored by revelation and experience. We must experience the love of God to know that God is love. Otherwise, we will agree with the concept, until the circumstances of life leave us feeling forsaken. When abandonment closes in, an intellectual faith will fail us. God s mirror in an integrated, versatile study geared to train through the process of discovery. It is designed to allow the Lord, Himself, to lead the students on a quest of discovery. The student s manual asks real life questions and gives the students keys for finding their own answers. The leaders guide includes ample suggestions to equip and enable the leader to facilitate the discovery process - training the heart to KNOW what the head can only intellectualize. Leading students beyond the...
