Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Portrait and Biographical Album of Osceola County Containing The Father of our Country was born in Westmorland Co., Va., Feb 22 1732. His parents were Augustine and Mary (Ball) Washington The family to which he belonged has not been satisfactorily traced in England His great grandfather John Washington, emigrated to Virginia about 1657, and became a prosperous planter He had two sons, Lawrence and John. The former married Mildred Warner and had three children John, Augustine and Mildred. Augustine, the father of George, first married Jane Butler who bore him for children two of whom, Lawrence and Augustine reached maturityOf six children by his second marriage George was the eldest the others being Betty, Samuel John Augustine, Charle and Mildred. Augustine Washington, the father of George, died in1743, leaving a large landed property To his eldest son Lawrence he bequeathed an estate on the Patomac, afterwards known as Mount Vernon, and to George he left the parental residence. George received only such education as the neighborhood schoolsafforded, save for a short time after he left school, when he receivedprivateinstruction in mathematics. His spelling was rather defective. Remarkable stories are told of his great physical strength and development at an early age. He was an acknowledged leader among his companions, and was early noted for that nobleness of character, fairness and veracity which characterized his whole life. When George was 14 years old he had a desire to go to sea, and a midshipman s warrant was secured for him, but through the opposition of his mother the idea was abandoned. Two years later he was appointed surveyor to the immense estate of Lord Fairfax....
