

The Expression of the Emotions in Man and Animals (Paperback)

By MR Charles Darwin

Createspace, United States, 1899. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .MANY works have been written on Expression, but a greater number on Physiognomy, that is, on the recognition of character through the study of the permanent form of the features. With this latter subject I am not here concerned. The older treatises, which I have consulted, have been of little or no service to me. The famous Conferences of the painter Le Brun, published in 1667, is the best known ancient work, and contains some good remarks. Another somewhat old essay, namely, the Discours, delivered 1774-1782, by the well-known Dutch anatomist Camper, can hardly be considered as having made any marked advance in the subject. The following works, on the contrary, deserve the fullest consideration.

This type of pdf is every little thing and helped me searching forward and more. It can be written in easy words and phrases and never hard to understand. You will not really feel monotony at anytime of your respective time (that's what catalogues are for about should you request me).
